1.What?

Deaf and hearing youth from 8 different countries: The Netherlands, Latvia, Lithuania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, Greece, Czech Republic will come together this summer in Ommen, The Netherlands.

During “Do you see it work?” deaf and hearing participants will meet, learn, work, explore, express and create together. The topic of the exchange is work. We focus on the fact that deaf and hearing youth learn from each other and each other’s differences in culture, habits, ways to communicate, ideas and experiences with work.

We will have an active programme with both indoor and outdoor activities. We will work with different media, our body and our senses.

In many parts of the exchange interpreters will be used in order to translate from spoken English to International Sign Language and vice versa.

1.1 The program:

Below you can see a global overview from the program of the exchange

"Do you see it work?"
Pre-exchange	"Do you see it work?" exchange	Post-exchange
Theme: you and work in your home country	Themes: get to know each other; cooperation, communication and trust; work and you; creating a picture; your dream job; practice.	Theme: how to share what I learned with my environment
Activity: creating a video about work (together with the group from your country)	Activities: games to get to know each other, games on self-expression, communication and trust; presentations and sharing about the labor market in the home countries; discovering your core qualities; creating a picture of your dream job; dancing; sharing; using media tools and many other activities.	Activity: we will decide together in the end of the exchange

* As a part of the pre-exchange activity one participant and a group leader from each country meet in the Olde Vechte Foundation in May 2012. In this meeting they will create the programme of the exchange together by trying out various activities.
